the train, last night, to receive the Sunday being made to secure from Gov. Phelps a never should be unsoldered. here. Several of Sedalia's elite accom- Green at the time Marsha! Hughes was shot good for her. represented the devotional and true object shot first, and fired two shots. Hughes was elevated their calico outrageously, and othof worship. I would say right here that shot in two places, the right side and right erwise scandalized good morals. Green Ridge has a reverence for the sanc- shoulder, and he was standing with his About this time, however, Officers Smith and influencing all to lead upright, honor- was fired, but by whom no one could tell, ed them. They resisted with all their

Woman's Rights, recited by Miss Mamie courage him toresist arrest; made no re- looking for cats.

bered how often they had searched for that he picked it up as he rose and started up-busted-frayed-wore out. friends and relatives on the battle field dur- out of the cabin, and all the facts seemed Widder Green, Miss Cora Rippey, with her told or rather asked Fisher not to interfere, the damage. rowful past, and showed how happy we all would shoot him too. can be. especially an independent widow. The head and front of Miller's offending Burk and Belle Magruder. The Dead Doll, by little Allie Pierce, was was that he knew Geeen, went to Fisher's excelsior. Truly the best wine for the last with him, was present with two others Shout for Joy, Meet Me at the Fountain, hand a few minutes after, told Fisher not to etc.. by the orchestra and chrous, was in interfere and went away with Green and'reharmony with the praises of King David mained with him till captured. His guilt when he said: " Awake psaltery and harp; -if guilty at all -was a technical guilt of O, come let us sing unto the Lord." The being present "ready to assist." solo by Judge Taylor with his splendid | Those who witnessed the trial and heard bass was well received. One of the best the testimony in the case, were so strongly conce ts ever given in Green Ridge, closed impressed with the innocence of Miller as with Hallelujah 'tis Done, the audience ris- to any active participation in the killing. ing and joining in the chorus. Dr. House that had the question been submitted by spoke of the rich literary treat, and called the court to the audience instead of the to express their approval, who was heartily unanimous verdict of acquittal. The prisresponded to. Rev. Marshall replied in a oner's youth and sensibility, his gentle few well chosen remarks on the material bearing, his prepossessing demeanor, and interests of Sedalia and GreenR idge, and generally favorable antecedents, elicited trusted the fraternal feeling might never strong popular sympathy in his behalf. grow less. Elder Pierce pronounced the Nor was this feeling confined to the general benediction, when Sedalians hurried for the public. The subsequent efforts made by cars. Come again friends. Yours, BISMARK.

Where Is He?

Mrs. R. Conner writes to us from Savan- been forwarded to Governor Phelps, solicitnah, Ga., as follows:

Can you tell me of the whereabouts of young man by the name of John W. Con-ner. I was informed that he worked in your office not long since. Any information as to his whereabouts will be thankfully received by his mother.

and his deputies, Judge Cowan, of the law State and Jefferson Sts., Savannah, Ga. He never worked here that we are aware and equity, Judge Collins, presiding justice of the county court, the editors of the city press, and many other citizens who had be-Killed by Lightning. come familiar with the case.

Our special correspondent at Warrens burg sends us the following:

Yesterday, a few minutes before twelve o'clock, a thunder storm came up, while a An Appeal from Her Agonized negro man was plowing for Mr. J. W. Palmer, who lives near the edge of Warrensburg. When the storm came up the negro drove his mules and plow up beside from Michigan to Southwest Missouri, the barn for shelter. A flash of lighthing while encamped at a point about seven killed both mules and left the negro se-miles and a half west of Rolla, Missouri, verely stunned but unburt. Some main- last November, had their youngest child, a tain that the bolt first struck the negro's girl twelve years old, stolen by a worthless Mr. Palmer is a poor, hard working man, in Missouri, and who had requested and and the loss is a very heavy one to him.

-We can recommend our readers to use place about three miles east of Carthage, Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in all cases of some four weeks ago, where all traces of her cough, cold, etc. It costs only 25 cents a and her abductor were lost. The supposttion was that the villain was trying to bottle and is waranted to cure.

Mike Morrissey.

made frequent inquiries along the route in The man Morrissey, of Sedalia, who met regard to this point; but the disconsolate with the railway accident on Friday, shows parents, who are in Galena, Ka, have as yet but little signs of improvement, although learned nothing which will furnish any Dr. Griffith is indefatigable in his atten- clae to the recovery of the abducted girl. tions. As yet no operation has been per- The unfortunate girl's name is Permilia formed, and every effort will be made to Rose Einor Burr, but her parents have save the leg.-Kansas City Times.

Who is the Gentleman from Mis- her to assume the name of Ellen. He has

"Experience is a dear school but fools mere child was his wife, whom he was will learn in no other," is an old saying obliged to take away from her home on acand very often verified, and will continue count of the ill-treatment she received from to be illustrated throughout the endless her parents. She has been compelled by him ages of eternity. The lessons taught by to beg their living while wandering from experience are more impressive, and not place to place, and on several occasions he easily forgotten, especially when an indi- has cruelly beaten her. She is described vidual loses hard earned money. The fol- as follows: Light complexion, light brown lowing is a case in point: A gentleman hair, very large blue eyes, and her face, from Missouri was in the city last Satur. when she is in health, is oval. The villain day, we suppose, for business and pleasure is described as being about five feet ten combined. While promenading on Jones inches in height, rather slender built, with street he happened to stray into a saloon, very curly, black hair, somewhat gray, and where he met by chance a woman who said was shabbily dressed at the time. she had been acquainted with him across Any one having information which the line. She asked him to "set 'em up," might lead to restoring this child to her and "he set 'em up." There were other grief stricken parents, will please communiparties in the room, and they "set 'em up." cate with them either at Galena or Empire There was so much "setting up" going on, City, where they will remain about two that the Missouri man was far.in his cups weeks, or until some clue is furnished as to and didn't care for anything. Somehow her whereabouts. Besides being an aged he and his female companion took a stroll, couple, they are in almost destitute circumand at some boarding house they engaged stances, and are, of course, unable to prosea room, probably telling the proprietor cute the search as it should be done. It is that they were man and wife. After retir- to be earnestly hoped that a charitable and Bull's Baby Syrup, a good medicine. It ing to bed, the gentleman, from Missouri sympathizing public will give such asfell asleep. In the course of an hour or so sistance as lies in their power towards rehe awoke, and realized that his fair partner storing the girl to her almost distracted had left him. "Where is my money," was parents, and in bringing this diabolical the thought uppermost in his mind. He scoundrel to the punishment he so richly searched his vest and still he wondered deserves. "where is my money." He hastily dressed covering his money, but up to a late hour the blessings of yesterday afternoon the question he asked was still, "where are my $52." The shrewd female managed to eiude the vigilance of the officers, and probably when she is found nothing can be done with her .- Ft. Scott

"Helen's Babies." This work is acknowledged to be the best selling article in our bookstores. Druggists, however, say that cost, for cash, during the next thirty days. ather medicine. It is perfectly harmless and Osage and Ohio streets. always reliable. Price, 25 cents a bottle. 4-23w2t

MOURNFUL MILLER.

Efforts in Behalf of the Doomed Dusky Amazonians on a "White." Man in Lexington Jail.

his faithful counsel, Major B. L. Woodson

A STOLEN GIRL.

Parents.

reach the Short Creek lead mines, as he short time. The price is 25 cents.

One Hundred Plows at Cost.

I will sell John Deere Moline plows at Relle Burk and Belle Magruder are From the Atchison Patriot.

TWO BELLES.

school orchestra, of the M. E. Church, Se- commutation of the sentence of death passed | Belle Magruder is about asonary a spec- quested that we publish a full statement of ing. Whoever the thief or thieves were, dalia, who, as per announcement, were to upon Frank Miller, to imprisonment for men of a black she wild cat as ever cursed the matter. Mr. Hooper tells his story in they acted under the old adage of, "a fair ing the last war. Miss Lucy received many to corroborate this assertion. Seeing Fish- but if it was anything in accordance with After that Johnson did not come to the The catch or socket of the bolt had evia sorrowful but heartfelt "Thank you." er about to raise Hughes up, as he fell, he merit, about $500,000 each might repair house so often, and soon Ella told us that dently been broken off semetime in the af-

IN IRONS Morning.

Last November the Bazoo gave the particulars of the arrest of a man named Chas. Young, alias Case alias Wilson. He had been employed at Robbins' stable, and was arrested on the charge of stealing . a pair of mules at Vinita. A handbill of- Ella as best we could, but that since he had The police have the matter in hand, and dose. Enclosed you will find $20 for a pretering a reward had been sent here, and Young was spotted. A photograph was also his former arrest have been heartily seconded by court and jury, by the legal fraternity generally, and by the press. The application which has ing a commutation of the penalty, was endorsed by Judge Wm. Walker and the jury of mules belonging to Mr. West disappear- wrote him two notes but he neglected to an-Attorney Peak, of Jackson, the marshal ed about the same time. This coincidence swer them. ed Mr. West to believe he was the thief. and he had hand bills printed with a rereturn of the property.

where he disposed of them at a livery sta-A family of movers named Burr, en route of the Insane Asylum at Osawotamie.

Young, or Wilson, came to Sedalia last to work for Frank Robbin's. He was arrested by Officer Turner and Marshal Kelly telegraphed the fact to Mr. Young was released and went out to Mr. been granted permission to accompany Hood's, who is a relative. There he has them. The parents traced their child to a been ever since, working on the tarm. Mr. West succeeded in tracking his stock Kansas and the livery stable keepers were > known to be out of pocket long when Misouri was concerned. agent arrived in this city yesterday morning and made application to Sheriff Murray, who detailed deputies Stephen Homans and

Jno. W. Stewart to make the arrest. They went to Mr. Hood's farm and ascerlearned that since she has been in the ained that Mr. Hood and Young had gone clutches of this scoundrel, he has compelled to a neighboring place. Thather went the officers. On arriving at the designated spot represented to different parties that this they found their man and arrested him, who inquired:

"How am I going to go to town?" Homans-"Just as you are. If you can't ret a horse vou can walk." Mr. Hood provided Young with transportation. Young asked Mr. Stewart if he couldn't go to the house and procure a bet ter suit of clothes. Steve was consulted, and replied: "As you're going to Kansas, the less you have the better."

Which was truth as well as logic. The party returned to the city by a dif-The officers arrived here at 6 o'clock school to get rid of her.

with their prisoner, and handed him over soon as he saw him, exclaimed, "that's the Young was placed in jail last night, and this morning departed for Paola in irons. -We request all mothers to stop using laudanum for their babies, but use Dr.

contains nothing injurious. 25 cents. Puts Them to Sleep. Rev. J. J. Bentley, of the M. E. Church. during his morning discourse last Sunday. covered several of his auditors fast asleep.

Pausing for an instant, be annouced that be Papers throughout this State and Texas would resume his remarks as soon as some and sought a policeman to assist him in re-ISAIAH BURR and Now if the people of Springfield cannot HARRISTT BURR. be kept awake by the preaching of the Rev. Bentley; move him out and send for Rev. -We are always pleased to recommend a good article. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup Marshall or Elder Pierce, of Sedalia. Rev. never fails to cure a cough or cold in a Van Wagner's people never went to sleep in church. Any of the named gentlemen don't let their people go to sleep while they is unnecessary.

are preaching. J. R. STEWART. Price, 25 cents. CRAZED WITH LOVE.

A Sad Story Prom Atchison City.

Frank Miller is now lying in the Lexing- names well known to the police records. Mr. James A. Hooper, of Monrovia, father ton jail, under sentence of death, with the The husband of one is in the penitentia- of Miss Ella Hooper, the young lady who gallows scene but a few days off unless Gov. ry, and it is a sad thing for Sedalia that the figured in the Johnson-Hooper affair, of store of Lon Van Wagner & Co., was broken Quite a number of the citizens of Green Phelps interferes in his behalf. The Kan- law has separated them. They both ought which a brief statement was given to our into, and the cash drawer burst open. It Ridge were at the depot on the arrival of sas City Mail says that an earnest effort is to be together-what Satan joined together readers, last Wednesday, called at the contained about nine dollars in money, all give an entertainment in the M. E. Church. life. Miller was companion of Richard a community. The penitentiary is too such a plain, straightforward manner as to exchange is no robbery." and very consider panied them. The church, although not by the latter, a crime for which Green suf- About 11 o'clock yesterday these two reveals brands young Johnson as either a will be preserved as souvenirs, and put in finished, presented a very creditable appear- fered the extreme penalty upon the gallows, wenches filled up on bad whisky and took fool or a knave. We give Mr. Hooper's a glass case, with the sentiment attached ance. The pictures on the walls with the Upon the subsequent trial of Miller at Lex- to Main street to enliven the denizens statement about as he gave it to us, going "Though lost to sight, still to memory motto in the centre-"Thou, God sent me," ington, it was clearly shown that Green thereof with a can can d'Atrique. They into details, as he requests. He says:

About five years ago, Ally Johnson, a Officers Gray and Sm'th passed the stor young man now in the neighborhood of about two o'clock this morning and saw a twenty-three, son of Lovell Johnson, of our light burning in the rear part of the store. tuary as a means of promoting good morals, right side nearest to Green. A third shot and Gray put in an appearance and arrest-neighborhood, began to pay attention to Thinking it was either the clerk or Himperfect. Her modulations of voice were in when the officer came into the cabin, until and under its influence the shutters began My wife and I consented to this. Johnson complete the work. perfect harmony with the sentiment-true the shooting was all over. He then for the to curl up and the iron bars turned red was very devoted to Ella, and acted as if Early in the evening, Mr. Matthews, the eloquence. Searching for the Slain, by first time was seen with a pistol in his hand. with rust. It was the worst pair that ever he loved her. He often stated that he could clerk, noticed that the catch which receives Miss Lucy Bapple, caused many a heart to He claims that the pistol was lying back a went into that delectable pen, but this not afford to marry, but that they would the bolt of the back door was broken off well up with deep emotion, as they remem- few feet from where he was sitting, and morning their pipes were silent-all split before long. He kept up his visits un- and the door was ajar. He called Mr. Him-We do not know what they were fined, whom she had rejected, got married. nailed the door up to make it safe. quaint humorous acting drove back the sor- believing that if Fisher did interfere Green This is a hard world, but two of the most soon after fell into a spell of sickness and party who entered the store, probably with Dr. J. D. Brown: flinty boulders on its surface are Belle became almost deranged. Her physician the idea that its absence would not be noof the feast. The rendering Christmastide, when Hughes was killed, had a pistol in his Went Chas. Young to Kansas this talk with him, and he told me that he no and went out of the rear window. longer longer loved Ella, and that he could Mr. Van Wagner says he has not missed I told him that we would get along with them for better.

> his conduct. sent, and the resemblance was perfect. The My daughter finally recovered. Soon errest was made, and the owner of the owner Johnson paid her attentions again, and of the mules telegraphed of the fact. He their engagement was renewed. He said county, arrived in the city by the M., K. & failed to come and identify and prosecute that he loved her better than ever, and that T. this morning, with two prisoners, and the man, so he was released. Yesterday he no one should come between them. He was arrested by deputies Stewart and Ho- promised to marry her on the following son City with his charges. They were: mans on a requisition from Kansas. He Sunday, which fell, I think, on the 15th of has been living on Wm. Hoods's farm since October last. The day came, but Johnson failed. He came, however in a day or two It appears that the mules were owned by after, and on the grounds of poverty asked man named West, who lives near Vinita for a postponement. To this we consented. in the Indian Territory. Young had been lie made but a few more visits to the house to Texas, and was on his return with his before he came to Atchison to school. He father in-law. (At least he claims he made many vows of love and constancy was.) However that may be, he came to before he left. He promised when he left Vinita some time in October, and bung that he would visit Monrovia often, and around there some time under the alias of would always call and see her. He has been there twice, but each time neglected to One day he disappeared, and a fine pair call and see Ella as per his promise. She > Three weeks ago my younger daughter started to Atchison to enter Mrs. Monroe's ward offered for the arrest of the thief and school, and Ella came with her to learn dress making of Mrs. Abbot. She was larceny. To follow the chain of circumstances as with Mrs. Abbot four days, but becoming related, we will now follow Young, or rath- tired of the business, entered as a pupil at er Wilson. After running away with the Mrs. Monroe's school. She soon had an inmules he made his way to Paola, Kansas, terview with Johnson, and he promised to come up to her boarding house, to see her ble for $150. The proprietors of the stable and help her with her lessons. He came sold them to the state of Kansas for the use as per agreement, but left soon and very but he pulled away from her saying: "I the Choctaw Nation. On last Monday,

This is the last she has seen of him. ter and Miss Allison went to church, leav- county, where they were guarded during head and glanced off and killed the mules tramp whom they had overtaken somewhere West. Mr. West failed to respond and her at home as she refused to go with them. the night. The prisoners earnestly pro-When they came back they could not find tested their innocence of the charges alher. She came in, however, soon after, leged against them; said they dreaded saving that she had been almost to St. Joe. foul play; expected to be murdered on She sat a long time in silence, and refused their way to Texas; entreated Mr. Belt to o Paola and recovered them. The State of to go to bed. She made the remark, "I am take them in charge, deliver them over to waiting for the moon to come up," and in the authorities at Fort Smith, and thereby reply to a question, said she was going to afford them an opportunity to obtain evithen out of pocket, and Kansas was never drown herself when the moon got up. She dence from Texas and a fair trial. On A requisition was obtained and a special late the next morning. When she awakened Tom. Walls, Sheriff of Scullyville county. she ran from the room, and straight for the C. N. Here about twenty men assembled river. Her friends and teachers gave chase, through curiosity, and the prisoners were redaughter was crazy; at times mad, and a shot and killed, and the other succeeded in means big) and ask Porfirio Diaz how much the doctor and Simpson for the hotel. Ken- this city, on the line of the Hannibal and raving maniac, and talked in an ircoherent making his escape. It is, however, the pre-> first he gave as a reason for his conduct have not yet reported, but it is hoped they that he could not afford to marry. I told may soon do so in the custody of some of him I did not do it to buy him, but that if our vigilant U. S. Deputy Marshals. -Ft. passed away, and in obedience to a stern poverty only stood in the way, he might Smith Herald. have half my farm and half of all I had. This changed him, and he then owned up that he did not want to marry Ella, nor would he. He said that he only went to

My daughter is lying almost at death's door. At times she is lucid, but nearly al- taking the census of Board of Education. ways wild and raving. In her lucid mo- with a view of a-certaining the exact numments she cries out for Ally to come and see ber of children of school age in Sedalia, the her. She says that she has given him up, following is the result: and is going to die. She only wants to see Whole number of white females him once before she dies. But the hardened boy refuses to answer her appeals, although his parents, as well as my wife and I, have Number between 16 and 25 years. begged him to come. Ella expresses a great | The last mentioned is what is called the fear that this scandal will get out to the university class, that cannot properly be world and ruin Johnson in social life, and mentioned as school children.

at times she cries bitterly about it. The young man's parents have treated u with the greatest of respect, and have acted approximate estimate of the city's populaso honorably in the matter that I must so spress myself in this statement. What I dren debarred by the provisions of the new am to do, I can't tell. My daughter is They took the hint, roused up, and the ser-mon went on as usual.—Springfield Patriot. his more presence could save her reference 9,000 and 10,000 people. his mere presence, could save her, refuses, between 9,000 and 10,000 people. The above is Mr. Hooper's statement of the sad and tragic romance. All who read it will at once give their sympathies to the grief stricken parents, even unto those warm friends and ardent admirers of the "frank and manly" Johnson. Comment from us

BURGLARY.

Lon Van Wagner & Co's Store Broken Into.

Last night, about two o'clock, the shoe Putriot office, Saturday afternoon, and re- of which, of course, is missing this mornleave no room for doubt, and the facts he erately left an old pair of boots. These dear."

my daughter Ella, now about twenty-two. burg, the shoemaker, at work, they paid no and no trace of a ball could be found on might and fairly made Rome howl. Finally At the same time, there was another young attention to it. This must have been the The entertainment was a grand success, the floor walls of the cabin. Miller was Gray slipped the nippers around Belle man of the neighborhood who had been a time when the thief or thieves were at work. A full house listened, with delight, to the shown to have taken his pistol from his Burk's wrist, and then she did get down to visitor at our house, and was a suntor for Entrance was effected through a rear different performances, and I only heard of bunk that evening to shoot a squirrel, and her work. A steam calliope was a whisper my daughter's hand. There sprang up a window, the upper sash of which was let one universal complaint, "Too short. I had not at that time returned it to his bunk. to the music she made. They were finally warm rivalry between the two young men, down. Upon the table beneath were two wish they had more time." The singing and Witnesses were standing only a few feet landed in the cooler, where they began an which lasted about one year, when young or three large coal oil lamps, one of which playing was in sweet accord; the music from him, and say that he did not shoot, impromptu concert, and every man in the Johnson demanded of Ella that she choose was knocked off and broken upon the floor nor did he say anything to Green, or en- neighborhood grabbed a brick and began between them. She did so, and the other This was evidently by accident, and not young man was dismissed. Soon after, per- with any intention of firing the premises Hogue, was exceedingly well done. Creeds sistance whatever by word or deed himself, Their programme embraced an alternate haps three years ago, a formal engagement because had such been the intent on, nothof the Bells, by Miss Ida W. Pierce, was nor rose from the place where he was sitting selection of steam whistles and blasphemy, was announced between Ella and Johnson. ing but a match, would be necessary to til last August, when the young man, burg's attention to it, and together they he had broken off the engagement. Ella termoon or early in the evening by the same said it was on account of the rupture ticed, and entrance to the store could easily between her and Johnson. We sent for be effected. The nailing of the door having I have heard of that wonderful rejuvingthim, and he came to the house. I had a balked them of this plan, they broke into ing elixir of life that is having such a not marry her. I told him that I did not any stock, but it is highly probable that he heard that it is a good place to go to. blame him if that was his reason; that I is out of $9 and a pair of boots, for the The wimen are scerce and men plenty would rather bury my daughter than have needy gentleman would never have left an How is wheat in Texas? Can you tell me have her marry a man who didn't love her. old pair unless he could have exchanged the price of kalves? How do widows rate?

been so frank, we would not blame him for it is our private opinion that the reader scription of your "beautiful Indian Terriwill hear something "drap" presently.

For the Penitentiary. Samuel France Sheriff of took the Missouri Pacific train from Jeffer-Wm. Grate, convicted of murder in the Dr. J. D. Brown, General Passenger Agent second degree, sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

Wm. Scott, grand larceny, two years. ANOTHER BATCH.

tenced are as follows:

Henry Hicks, colored, two years, grand

Joseph Martin, two years, grand larceny.

Sheriff Calbird was accompanied by Messrs. Vernon and Bolding.

Horse Thieves Lynched in the Choctaw Nation. We have just received information of a high handed proceeding which occurred abruptly. She attempted to detain him, Wednesday last, a few miles? from here in fall, after disposing cothe mules, and went will give you no more encouragement." two supposed horse thieves from Texas, were arrested near Clarksville, Arkansas, Last Sunday evening (April 14,) her sis- and taken two W. F. Belt's store in this was finally got to bed, and she slept until Thursday they were taken to the house of and overtook her on Second street, and moved to a place about 200 yards distant, to brought her back. I happened in town, meet their doom. On reaching the place of Tuesday morning, and then was the first I execution, they made a desperate run for heard of the facts I have related. My poor their lives, when one of them was instantly the Rio (which means river) Grandee (which ing. Kennan ran for his pistol, Moore for city, and situated fifty-three miles west of manner of the way Johnson had wronged vailing opinion that both were killed. The two men who had charge of the prisoners I took her out home that afternoon, returned to the house of Mr. Belt, passed lamp. Johnson came out towards the last of the Thursday night there, and said they were week, but, although Ella has asked for him going to Fort Smith to deliver themselves to come and see her, he refuses to come. I to the United States Marshal, and stand an have seen him and talked with him. At investigation for the killing. They have

> School Statistics. An error occurred in the following article yesterday morning, and we republish it cor> rected:

colored females

Mr. Chapman, in taking the census a above, had an opportunity of making an tion. Allowing for that preportion of chil constitution, and the floating population

Fifty Calves at a Birth. hardest thing we ever tried to swallow:

Yesterday, at Tailorstown, Washington soon was not dreamed of. -Mothers should take warning and stop county, Pa, a few miles from this city, a They were married by Rev. J. L. Walker been lifted to the required height above the -The best is the cheapest. Dr. Bull's dosing their babies with laudanum while cow owned by Robert Hall, a farmer, gave in the Advance office, and stepped immediately pedestal. Two iron grinders will then be after giving birth to the calves.

A NEW PILL

Tried It and Know How the Old Thing Works.

"The M., K. & T." A new pill. They all take it. For further particulars, call on Dr. J. D. Brown, Gen'l Passenger Agent, St. Louis. | Patenteer and sole right.] Dr. J. D. Brown, St. Louis, Mo:

my own back, by hanging on to the back of a seat in a Pullman Palace car on the M. K. & T. My back burt after the Tucker Simpson, half brother to ex-Speak- and that is, mutual conciliation. Strive to trouble was all over, and I was astonished er Boone, of Clinton, had several parties to find that there had not been, never was, nor could not be a collission on the M., K. & T. My lawyer advised me to sue for license. These proceedings made him very Trust one another. Have no secrets from damages. [This was for my back.] I did it.

Doctor, you know how it is.

about 800 miles long, but I managed to get matter it down. I went to Texas for my health and love the M., K & T.

Yours, respectfully, In the name of the Lord, JOHN SMITH. P. S .- I think my back is better.

COSOCHIE, O., Feb. 11, 1878. DEAR SIR:-I am a widow, and I suppose you are too. It is bad. A widow is wonderful effect in building up the bodypolitic and the State of Texas. I have Isthere enny chance? Send me along a

They say they all take it. How is it for a widow?

Yours. EMILY JONES. P. S. I am a widow.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10. M. K. & T., St. Louis :

James Morrison, two years, for grand tory and trying to unlock the gate of Deni- told him that he could son, where you get through or climb over mers or thereabouts, said :

"Sit down old man."

Sez he, "old man, air von krazev?"

We went out into the gearden, and so help me gracious what I took to be a moun- Moore realizing Kennan's danger, jumped tain of coral, bristling over with cedars, over his yard fence and rushed over pell was nothing in G-d's world but a Texas mell to annihilate the cuttist. Simpson

We sot down on the seller dore.

We talked it all over.

He told me he had.

and see what the genii will say to us." He did it. And lo and behold! a dark smoke ariz which obscured the sky, but in a moment command, "Look thou up!" And in heaven's firmament, with letters made in burning stars, I read these words: TO HEAVEN: Close Connection and No Change of Cars. BE SURE YOU BUY YOUR TICKETS

The only Road having the Right of Way Through the Beautiful Territory. J. D. BROWN. tien'l. Pass. Agt. M. K. & T. N. B .- St. Peter will take up you

THE M. K. & T.,

Yours, Rejoicingly, OLD MAN ROSS.

Sensation Among the Printers. thing since the invention of the telephone, denouement. It has been vaguely hinted pair of trunnions projecting at the side. but the following special dispatch from at for a few days past that George had be- The needle will then be raised by a hyof the noble red man .- Curtiage Advance. lowered upon its resting place.

FIGHT IN COURT.

Letters From Those Who Have What is going on the Montgomery County Circuit Court-The Sequel to a Fight.

> MONTGOMERY CITY, Mo., April 23d '78. Editor Bazoo:

To-morrow a case of unusual interest will be tried in the Danville (Montgomery county) Circuit Court. From what your I was run over by a collission and broke correspondent could learn, the facts briefly given are about as follows: Sometime find defects in her, and she in you, which early last fall a young attorney named indicted in Laddonia, a small town on the toward each other. The secret of happi-C. Q. & A. R. R., for selling liquor without ness in married life is mutual confidence. unpopular with the liquor men and threats were freely made against both his person and his property. Hearing of this and be-Well, I kept on suing, and suing, and ing warned by friends, young Simpson pursuing-and Got knows, I mought have chased a revolver and went armed for sevbeen suing vit. But I read your "Letter eral weeks, but no attempts being made vent differences, you can prevent any evil to John," and thinks I, of that does John upon his life he grew indifferent to his dangood, it 'll do it to me onct. I sent for a ger and stopped carrying this weapon, sup- have trouble keep it to yourself and wife. box of your pills. I took one. It was posing as he afterward said that the Compromise will secure you undoubted

HAD BLOWN OVER. [and back] and I am happy to inform you, In this he made a great mistake, for his that I have quit lying, swearing, drinking enemies had been but "nursing the wrath to ashamed of yielding when you are sure you whisky, go to church three times Sunday, keep it warm." In the meantime a little are not in the right. There is no sacrifice attend prayer meeting (ef I hev to;) drop circumstance occurred in Laddonia, which or self-denial in yielding only when you are all holts as soon as the bell rings, pay my although a digression, I beg leave to relate, in the wrong. You must consult your debts, love my own and my neighbor's wife, in as much as it has considerable bearing wife's whims and caprices as well as her kiss the baby three times a day, fear God on the case in hand. A German, residing reasonable desires. Mankind is generally in the above mentioned town, claimed that the charge at the door of several different wife's desires because you think them uncitizens. Not being noted for his partiality reasonable. Women have at times the to truth, no attention was paid to his story privilege of being unreasonable. until he accused an Irish section hand named Fox, of having committed the theft. ssembled at a saloon where he was

DIVESTED OF ALL HIS CLOTHING. except an undershirt, each article being tions of the other, those antipathies must searched separately. Not finding the be consulted, and if not removed, must be noney they became frantic with rage and chagrin and resolved on desperate measures. A rope being procured, the luckless Irishnan was led to a barn, the rope tossed over a beam and then—the poor devil took a rise tion of your income to the future of your in the world. Time and again was the operation of raising and lowering him repeated but without success, the Irishman you above asking favors. was game and wouldn't own up to the Live within your means, and nobody will mob left him and went off to take "another drink" upon which some kind hearted per- how poor you are. son sallied forth and cut him down-

MORE DEAD THAN ALIVE. Young Simpson having just returned from Mexico and learning the facts felt DEAR SIR: I am the only father of an very indignant as well as mortified at the only son. Years ago-I shall never forget action of the mob and did not fail to brand the day-I lost the jewel of my household, it as "an outrage and a disgrace first child you will possibly find your Sheriff Calbird, of Henry county, arrived It was Charlie Ross. Probably you heard to the town and community at large." In- wife fretful, cross, peevish, pouty, on the morning train with six prisoners for of him. Well, sir. I mourned over my deed, so intense was his indignation at the and troublesome, just as many good, the penitentiary. Their names and lost son. Spent $20,000 legitimately, and outrage, and so little his regard for the dancrimes and terms for which they were sen- about double that amount on those infernal ger which threatened him, that he entered, been before her. If such should be the case, detectives. No good. There was no balm unarmed, a drug store owned by one of the don't get mad, don't expostulate, don't re-Thomas Cox, two years for grand larceny. in Gilead or New York, that could heat parties whom he had had indicted, and buke or reproach her. The best thing you Jesse Haskins, three years, grand larceny. this wounded heart. I have sailed the seas there began to express himself pretty freely you can do is to grin and bear it. The over and walked across New Jersey. Still in regard to the Fox hanging scrape, not first smile of the baby will top it and pay I did not find him. But I sent for a box of knowing, at the time, that the proprietor, for all you have endured. Edward Duckworth, two years, grand your pills. They worked. They worked Mr. Kennan, was one of the parties to the powerfully. The first thing I knew I was hanging. Mr. Kennan immediately took

WHIP JUST SEVEN LIKE HIM "Fly to my arms! My Son-Oh, my fortunately for Simpson, had forgotten his that you were a child once, and do as you pistol that morning and could only oppose have had others do to you. him with his fists. At last Kennan seeing Sez I, "not much. Perduce that straw- that he was getting " the worst end of the tons off your shirts. Remember all the bargain," called to a Mr. Moore, a friend time that you are a poor, weak mortal, of his across the street, to BRING HIM HIS REVOLVER. had, however, "his eye skinned," and as Moore rushed up he gave him a back handed lick with the knife. That lick He was happy-he was rich-had about placed Moore hors de combut. It like to during said fight. More anon, Erected.

On the 28th ultimo preparations were made for taking down the upper portions of two massive granite pedestal which stand on each side of the spot on which the obe- hour, of ground feed, and the saw mill half lisk is to be erected. The excavation has carried on satisfactorily for the spa to be occupied by a floor of concrete of great solidity and strength, destined to support the weight of the obelisk and its massive granite pedestal. The expense of making this foundation will be borne by Mr. Dixon, the contractor. The other expenses will be borne by the Metropolitan Board of Works, including £1,500, the cost of two Sphinxes, which are to be placed on the lowerd granite pedaslals at each side. The plan adopted by the Romans, as well as by the French, at the commencement of Last evening quite a breeze was stirred this century, for raising the obelisk upon up in printatorial circles by the report that its pedestals, was simply that of hauling George Fields, the Indian printer, and Miss the end into the air by ropes. This hower-Jennie Keys, a compositor, both working in er, required a large number of capetane the Advance office, had been married and and ropes, and Mr. Dixon proposes to acleft for the Indian Territory on the 3:30 complish the work by means more suited to train. The surprise was sudden and com- an age of mechanical ingenuity. He purplete, and the cold lead jerkers could be poses putting around the obelisk an iron seen standing on the streets until a late jacket, tightly wedged, so as to prevent it We are prepared to believe almost any- hour last night, excitedly talking over the from slipping. This jacket would have a West Virginia to the St. Louis Times is the come enamored of Miss Jennie and she of draulic presses, and supported by a strong him, but that lightning was to strike so scaffolding of timber from time to time, as the elevation increased, until it shall have

JOE HOWARD'S LAST.

How to Live Well and Die Happy.

FRIEND -: It is to be presumed that vou have chosen a wife after mature reflection, and not alone from selfish impulses Nevertheless, do not imagine that you can possibly have foreseen all the duties, responsibilities, and even trials to which married life may render you liable. In your intimate relationship and companionship you and your wife will appear to each other in an entirely new light. You will see which can exercise the greatest leniency one another. By all means, never call in a third party to interfere in any way in any family jars. You will be more than human if you and your wife can always perfectly agree, but, while you cannot prehappiness. By all means never allow a quarrel to last over night. There is misgoverned by the passions; not by the reason. he had been robbed of ten dollars, and lai! There is no excure for trampling upon a

Avoid personal habits which are offensive to your wife; or, if you cannot avoid Although Fox indignantly denied the them altogether, avoid them in her prescharge he was forced at the muzzle of a ence. Keep clear of your wife's relations pistol to go along with the mob, which had and have her keep clear of yours, in all business matters if possible. If either of you should form antipathies to the relarespected, or else your family jars will be numerous and irreconcilable.

Let your married life begin with systematic frugality. Devote a specific proporfamily. Your savings will in this way know how much you have ahead; but the moment you borrow a cent people know Go it while you are young. The duties of a house and family will come scon enough. Take it easy while you may in your early married life.

Be patient, and wait and watch andpray. Just previous to the birth of your

Don't think yourself immaculate and set vourself up as a pattern for your wife. If going through the beautiful Indian Terri- exceptions to young Simpson's remarks, and she wants to go to church and you don't, remember that it may not do you any harm to go to church. Don't scold your wife and into Texas. Well. I went out on to the (Simpson). Simpson coolly remarked, "I don't beat your children, if you have any. Rio Grandee, and as I was passing a two- guess you had better begin on me first." Teach your children by example. Be a story hedge with a white house, I could not Kennan, without further remarks, arose copy for them. Excuse them for such of help going in and asking for a drink of from his seat and walked toward the door, your faults as they inherit. Don't be-Simpson following. As soon as it was queath them a hasty temper and then whip A sunav haired matron of eighteen sum- reached, Kennan turned and struck Simpson them for it. Don't gossip before them and a blow on the temple and staggered him then punish them for gossiping. Den't preinto the street, at the same time feeling for vent them from romping or having minds his pistol. Simpson recovered himself in an of their own. Don't trighten them with Drectly, a big, tall, strapping, stalwart instant, and seeing Kennan's design, drew ghost stories. Don't lie to them. Don't youth, (the very image of his dad) came his knife and engaged him at c.ose quarters. neglect to give them anything you promise The contest grew fast and furious. Kennan, them - even punishment. Don't forget

> Don't get crazy if you have a few butliable to err, and in all probability no more perfect than your wife. Bathe often, look after your health, and never go home drunk. Yours,

JOHN. A Central Missouri Farm.

The following description of a Missouri farm is from the Hannibal Courier : 15,000 cattle all branded | | on the left took his tongue out by the roots. In fact | A modern model business farm is that hip, and was talking about walking over this was the finishing stroke to the carv- owned by John L. Lathrop, Esq., of this he'll take for his dern'd old farm, Greasers nan, however, got his revolver in time to St. Joseph Railroad, at Lentner. This farm give Simpson a parting salute, but without which is being run on shares, is under the I asked him if he had lit onto Aladdin's effect. Thus ended " the Leddonia tragedy," sole management of John T. Hixson, Esq., all of the parties being pretty badly hurt under whose skillful manipulation it has but no one killed. To-morrow this impor- been made to blossom as the rose. It em-Sez I: "Bully for you! Rub her agin, tant case goes to trial. Kennan and Moore braces 1,280 acres of the finest land in Censuing for damages for injuries austained tral Missouri. There are 800 acres in cultivation, about 600 of which is in meadow, producing every year immense pasturage for 345 head of cattle, 50 thoroughbreds and How the English Obelisk is to be 230 stock cattle. Twenty-five head of horses and mules serve all the purposes of plowing, running the feed mill and the horse-power saw-mill, which are extensive institutions, the feed mill turning out thirty bushels per

> There is a woods pasture of 180 acres, lying on the west of the place, which affords excellent grazing for the beef cattle.

> The house is a large two story frame, furnished in elegant style and containing about fourteen rooms and supplied with modern conveniences, while the barn, which is conveniently located, covers an area of forty feet in width, by seventy in length, and is two stories high. It is without doubt the the figest and most commodious barn in the State, and contains about thirty stalls of ample dimensions.

Mr. Hixson, whose experience in farming and whose sealous labor is constantly increasing the products of the Lathrop farm. is making a specialty of stock raising, and only a short time since shipped a few car loads of stock to Quincy, which netted about $1,100 per car, with only fourteen cattle to

Mr. Lathrop may well feel proud of his model farm; and congratulate himself upon having so able an assistant to manage it as Mr. Hixaon has shown himself to be. The farm is not for sale-money would scarely buy it-as Mr. Lathrop takes pride in the effort to bring it to perfection.

-Suicide is not more sinful than neg-Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup sells better than any Ware rooms on Second street, between Baby Syrup is acknowledged to be the teething. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup sells better than any Ware rooms on Second street, between Baby Syrup answers birth to fifty calves, ranging in size from ately into the 'bus and drove to the depot, placed under the trunnions, the obelisk will lecturg a cough. For only 25 cents you can safest and most reliable medicine for babies. the same purpose, and is perfectly harmless. rats to opossums. The cow died shortly where they took the train for the country then be slung into an upright position, and buy a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and be saved from death.